April 2025

Hello Fred,

Honoring Visibility, Uplifting Our Trans Community, and Advancing Equity in Action

As March came to a close, we marked two powerful milestones—the culmination of Women's History Month and the observance of Trans Day of Visibility on March 31.

Together, these moments remind us that honoring women's contributions means uplifting all women, including transgender women, and ensuring that trans and gender-expansive (TGX) voices are celebrated, supported, and seen.

At the Sacramento Rainbow Chamber, we believe that visibility must be matched with action. That's why, this April, we are proud to carry forward the spirit of March by highlighting our #IAm Campaign, which shares the powerful, personal stories of TGX leaders in our community, and continuing the work of our TGX Uplift project, which provides direct support and resources to trans and gender-diverse entrepreneurs.

We're also thrilled to announce the launch of our 2025 Scholarship Program, a cornerstone of our commitment to educational and economic equity for LGBTQ+ and allied students. These scholarships are a direct investment in the next generation of changemakers.

And as we look ahead, we invite you to join us for the Big Day of Giving—a key opportunity to support our mission of #EquityInAction. Your contributions help us fund scholarships, amplify trans voices, and sustain programs that create real, lasting impact.

Here's how you can show up this April:

- Celebrate & Share: Amplify the stories from our #IAm Campaign and TGX Uplift project.
- Support TGX-Owned Businesses: Choose to invest in businesses led by trans and gender-diverse individuals.
- Give Back: Donate during the Big Day of Giving and support our scholarship fund and equity programs.
- Sponsor & Partner: Join us in expanding opportunities for those who have been historically excluded.

Your advocacy, generosity, and commitment make a difference. Together, we are building a future rooted in equity, representation, and pride—for all.

MISSION of #IAm Campaign:

The Sacramento Rainbow Chamber of Commerce, in partnership with Outword Magazine, is proud to launch the #IAm Campaign—a collective declaration of empowerment, resilience, and unwavering solidarity with our transgender and gender-expansive (TGX) community.

Across the country, we are witnessing a dangerous surge in the erasure, criminalization, and silencing of trans lives and experiences. Whether through violent legislation, gate keeping of medical care, targeted hate, digital harassment, or structural exclusion, trans and gender- expansive people—particularly Black trans women, trans people of color, disabled and chronically ill trans individuals, those living with HIV/AIDS, undocumented folks, and those navigating poverty—are bearing the heaviest weight of harm.

We are launching this campaign because what is happening is devastating, dehumanizing, and dangerous. We are stepping up because silence is complicity and because we know silence is deadly.

The #IAm Campaign is our response—and it is ALL of our responsibility.

It is a call to action, a declaration of solidarity, and a movement grounded in love, outrage, protection, and hope.

We are building a space where care and love become resistance—where every voice that says “I Am” becomes a powerful act of support and human kindness.

This campaign offers TGX people and allies a platform to be heard, celebrated, and supported.

It is about bearing witness, claiming one another, and reminding one another—and the world—that we are still here and we are not alone.

Any personal information shared through the #IAm Campaign will be handled with the highest level of care, safety, and confidentiality. This campaign is here to amplify your voice—not expose it.

If you are under the age of 18, or living in a home, school, or community environment where being visible may put you at risk, you are welcome and encouraged to participate—with your safety as the priority. For your protection, you may not submit a photo or video that includes your face or any identifiable features. You are invited to share your message in the text box provided on the submission form, and we will proudly include your words in the campaign anonymously and with care.

To honor these messages, we will release a compiled video—a collective love letter to our trans and TGX community—just before Pride Month begins. And as submissions continue to come in, we will keep building on that love letter, expanding this archive of visibility, truth, and connection throughout the year and beyond.

Because our futures are bound together, and an attack on one of us is an attack on all of us.

#IAm is not just a response—it is a heartbeat, a mirror, a movement, and a refusal to disappear.

Let this be our reminder:

A community that turns toward each other, not away.

A community that protects and uplifts, especially those pushed furthest to the margins.

A community that believes in the power of showing up, even—and especially—when it's hard.

If you have any questions, need more information, or want to get in touch with us, please contact us at info@rainbowchamber.com.
