Greetings!

As we move from the joyful celebrations of June into the continued energy of summer, I want to extend a heartfelt “thank you” to everyone who showed up, cheered loudly, volunteered, and supported our many Pride events. Your presence made all the difference—and it reminds us that our pride is not just a moment, it’s a movement.

July brings another important opportunity to reflect and uplift, as we honor Disability Pride Month. Let’s continue to champion inclusion in all its forms, celebrate diverse abilities, and affirm that equity and access must remain at the heart of our work year-round.

That spirit of support doesn’t stop with events. Our Member Directory is a powerful tool—365 days a year—to discover and support LGBTQ+-owned businesses and allied enterprises. Let’s carry the momentum of Pride into our everyday choices by uplifting those who champion equity through their work.

And speaking of community, we’ve got some fabulous gatherings on the horizon:

- Drag Queen Bingo at Mango’s | Thursday, July 3
- Networking Night at Roscoe’s | Tuesday, July 15

Whether you're joining us for bingo, business, or both, I hope to see your smiling faces there. Your voice, your brilliance, and your boldness matter here.

Together, we’re building something bold, beautiful, and lasting.

With Pride and Purpose,

Sara Hanson (She/Her/Hers)

Support Local. Support LGBTQ+.

Every dollar we spend is a chance to make a difference—and when we choose to invest in LGBTQ+ businesses, we're helping our community thrive. The Sacramento Rainbow Chamber of Commerce has an online directory filled with LGBTQ+ and allied businesses that are ready to serve you. Whether you're looking for services, shopping locally, or planning your next event, our members are excited to connect and support you.

Did you know the LGBTQ+ community in the U.S. has an estimated buying power of nearly $1.4 trillion? Where and how we spend truly matters. Choosing to support inclusive businesses helps build a stronger, more connected local economy, where everyone benefits.

You can make an impact just by shopping with LGBTQ-owned or allied businesses, using our directory to discover local services, leaving a positive review online, referring a friend, or even just reaching out to say thank you. Small acts add up.

Nonprofits are also a vital part of our community. They provide essential services, organize events, and advocate for the needs of LGBTQ+ individuals and families. Supporting them can be as simple as making a donation, volunteering your time, attending a local fundraiser or workshop, or sharing their mission with your network.

Visibility makes a difference too. When we follow LGBTQ+ media, support queer content creators, and share accurate, inclusive stories, we help amplify voices that deserve to be heard.

Let's keep the momentum going. Explore the Sacramento Rainbow Chamber's directory today and make a conscious choice to uplift and support businesses that reflect the values of inclusion, community, and growth. Every dollar counts, and your support goes further than you think.

Visit our directory and discover how easy it is to make a meaningful impact—right here in our own backyard.

The Sacramento Rainbow Chamber of Commerce, in partnership with Outword Magazine, is proud to launch the #IAm Campaign—a powerful stand for empowerment, resilience, and solidarity with our transgender and gender-expansive (TGX) community.

Across the country, trans lives are under attack—through harmful laws, restricted healthcare, hate, and exclusion. These injustices hit hardest for Black trans women, trans people of color, disabled individuals, those living with HIV/AIDS, undocumented folks, and those facing poverty.

We cannot stay silent. Silence is complicity.

The #IAm Campaign is our collective response. It's a call to action, a show of love and protection, and a reminder that every "I Am" is an act of resistance and support. Which is why we will be leaving submissions open indefinitely.

Together, we rise. With care, with courage, and with hope.
